Marge in Charge	Isla Fisher				Meet Marge, the mischievous babysitter with rainbow hair who loves to make a mess and bend the rules . . . At dinnertime Chef Marge cooks up chocolate soup, and at school Marge the Muscian conducts a chaotic concert in the playground! Jake and Jemima have brilliant fun with their new babysitter, but will they manage to tick off all the jobs on Mummy's list?
An Alien in the jam factory	Chrissie Sains		Reflecting realities		Scooter McLay's cerebral palsy affects how quickly he can move his body, but his hyper-creative brain is a constant fizz of brilliant ideas. He spends every day inventing top secret recipes and machines for his family's jam factory. There's just one thing missing ... a pet, to share it all with. Or better still, a friend. When a tiny alien named Fizzbee crashes through the factory window, she might just be the answer. Now it's all hands on deck, as they team up to save the factory from dastardly neighbour Daffy Dodgy.

Einstein the Penguin	Iona Rangely		Contemporary fiction	Adventure Animals Friendship Family	When the Stewart family visit London Zoo one winter afternoon, Imogen and Arthur are enthralled by a small, inquisitive penguin named Einstein. As they leave, Mrs Stewart jokingly tells him that penguins are always welcome at their house. However, they are astounded when he turns up on their doorstep later that evening, clutching a small rucksack stuffed full of silver herrings, a Polaroid camera and a selection of photographs. They attempt to alert the zoo, but are met with disbelief, so do what anyone would in the circumstances and invite him to stay.
The Enchanted Wood	Enid Blyton		Classic texts	Adventure Magic	Inside the Enchanted Wood, they make all kinds of unusual new friends, including Moonface, Silky the fairy and the hard-of-hearing Saucepan Man, and soon find themselves involved in a host of exciting adventures. Best of all is the discovery that strange new lands can be found in the clouds at the very top of the Faraway Tree itself - from the Land of Spells to the Land of Treats to the Land of Do-As-You-Please.
George's Marvellous Medicine	Roald Dahl		Classic texts		George Kranky's Grandma is a grouch. She's always mean to George (and not much nicer to his parents either). One day, when George is put in charge of giving Grandma her medicine, he wonders if he can come up with his own remedy to try and help Grandma become less of a grump. Using some rather unusual ingredients, George creates his magic medicine*. But will it stop his grandma from being so horrible . . . or will it shoot sparks out of the top of her head?!

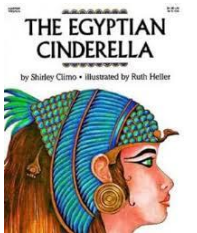

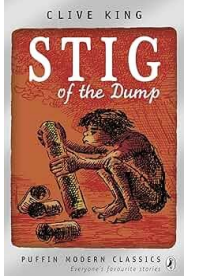

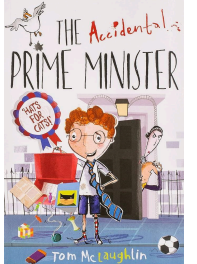

The Hodgeheg	Dick King-Smith		Classic texts		Max is a hedgehog who lives with his family in a nice little home, but it's on the wrong side of the road from the Park where there's a beautiful lily pond and plenty of juicy slugs, worms and snails! The busy road is dangerous but Max is determined to make his way across. If humans can do it, why can't hedgehogs? His first attempt ends in a nasty bump on the head and, when Max tries to speak, he realises his words are all mixed up. He is no longer a hedgehog but a hodgeheg! Still determined to fulfil his mission, Max discovers the best way to cross the road – with the help of the lollipop lady and some careful detective work . . .
The Worst Witch	Jill Murphy		Classic texts	Fantasy Funny Magic School	Loveable but accident-prone Mildred is probably the worst witch ever to attend Miss Cackle's Academy: her spells go wrong, her broomstick crashes, and then she turns Ethel, the teacher's pet, into a pig! She can't even put her witch's hat on the right way round, and strict teacher Miss Hardbroom is not at all impressed. But when Mildred discovers a plot against the school, can she save the day?

Egyptian Cinderella	Shirley Climo
Stig of the Dump	Clive King			Adventure Classics Friendship	Barney is a solitary little boy who often wanders off by himself in the countryside. Exploring an old chalk pit, he finds himself in a cave where he meets a strange boy who wears a rabbit skin and speaks in grunts. His grandparents don't believe Barney when he tells them about his new cave boy friend - but nevertheless, the two enjoy plenty of fun together.
The Accidental Prime Minister	Tom Mclaughlin			Funny Politics / human rights	When 12-year-old Joe hears that the Prime Minister will be coming to his school for a publicity event, he knows it's the one opportunity he might have to talk to someone with some real influence. There are plans to close his beloved park, which would mean his Mum would lose her job, as well as all the local children losing out on a place to play. But when Joe gets the chance to speak out, he can't control the outburst that pours out of him. He is full of ideas of how things could be better, and everyone else agrees. Before he knows it, Joe is thrust straight through the limelight and into a seat at Number 10. But delivering on all those promises isn't easy, and Joe is going to learn that being Prime Minister isn't all riding around in comfortable cars and signing autographs on vegetables.

Harriet vs The Galaxy	Samantha Baines			Adventure Fantasy Funny Deafness Space Family	When 10-year-old Harriet is rummaging under her bed hunting for her hearing aid, the last thing she expects to find instead is an alien. It's a sock-munching alien from planet Janet. But what is it doing under her bed? And could it be that this isn't the only intergalactic visitor? Perhaps Harriet's mild-mannered, tea-sipping, sock-knitting gran knows more about the alien invasion than she is letting on.
Charlotte's Web	E.B. White			Animals Friendships Classic
Alien in the Jam Factory	Chrissie Sains

Planet Omar: Accidental Trouble Maker	Zanib Mian			Bullying Religion / spirituality Diversity (BAME)	Omar has just moved into a new house with his family: sticky-fingered little brother Esa, snooty older sister Maryam and his scientist parents. Going to a new school turns out to be okay, apart from the fact that class bully Daniel tells Omar that because he's a Muslim, he's going to be kicked out of the country and will have to go and live in Pakistan. Understandably worried, Omar asks his cousin if that's true, and both hope it isn't, because there's a distinct lack of good pizza there. Plus, there's mean Mrs Rogers next door who complains loudly about Omar's mum frying onions. Yet when mean Mrs Rogers has an accident, Omar's family is there to help. And when Omar and bully Daniel get stranded on a school trip in London, Omar realises that Danny isn't so tough after all...
Lob	Linda Newberry			Myths and legends Bereavement Family Friendships Diversity (BAME)	Newberry bases her novel around the legend of Lob-lie-by-the-fire. Lucy and her beloved grandfather enjoy gardening together through the seasons, and she becomes aware that she, like him, can sense-see a small figure who helps with the gardening. When grandfather dies, Lucy fears that she has lost Lob for ever, and Lob himself seeks a new gardener to work with, rejecting those who do not allow him his freedom, until he discovers an elderly West Indian who gardens next to Lucy's family's new allotment.

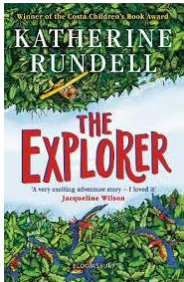

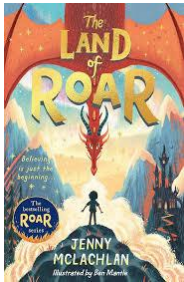

Elen's Island	Eloise Williams				When Elen is sent to stay with her gran on a remote Welsh island for the summer she is furious. But then she finds a friend, a puffin and a treasure map and the holidays start to look up.
Call me Lion	Camilla Chester		Reflecting realities	Friendship Selective mutism	It's Luton, it's the holidays and there is a heatwave. Low on friends, ten year old Leo is passing the long, lonely summer practising the thing he loves most – dancing. Then he meets his new next-door neighbour – confident and chatty, Richa is everything he isn't but the two instantly become friends. The only challenge is that Leo has Selective Mutism, and is unable to speak when around anyone outside his immediate family. Thankfully, Richa is completely un-phased by this and as a keen dancer too, so the two are a perfect match. It also transpires that she is struggling with a secret of her own...

The Explorer	Katherine Rundell		Contemporary fiction Building reading stamina	Around the world Friendships Feelings Survival	Fred, Con, Lila, and Max are on their way back to England from Manaus when the plane they're on crashes and the pilot dies upon landing. For days they survive alone in the Amazon Rainforest, until Fred finds a map that leads them to a ruined city, and to a secret. Are they alone in the forest?
Land of Roar	Jenny McLachlan		Contemporary fiction	Adventure Family Growing up Friendship	When Arthur and Rose were little, they were the heroes of Roar, a magical world they invented where the wildest creations of their imaginations roamed. Now that they're eleven, Roar is just a distant memory. But it hasn't forgotten them. When their grandfather is spirited away into Roar by the villain who still haunts their nightmares, Arthur and Rose must go back to the world they'd almost left behind. And when they get there, they discover that Grandad isn't the only one who needs their help.

Rumaysa: A fairytale	Radiya Hafiza		Modern twist on a familiar fairytale Contemporary fiction	Family Friendship Difference Hope Adventure Journeys	This funny and empowering story weaves together three classic fairy tales into one new adventure with an unusual structural twist: Rumaysa is a Muslim girl who lets her hijab down from a tall tower in order to escape. Set in a magical version of South Asia, Rumaysa explores enchanted forests and dragon lairs, teaming up with Cinderella and Sleeping Sara along the way to create a strong sense of sisterhood.
How to Train your Dragon	Cressida Cowell				Hiccup Horrendous Haddock the Third is a smallish Viking with a longish name. Hiccup's father is chief of the Hairy Hooligan tribe which means Hiccup is the Hope and the Heir to the Hairy Hooligan throne - but most of the time Hiccup feels like a very ordinary boy, finding it hard to be a Hero.
The Highland Falcon Thief	M.G. Leonard and Sam Sedgewick			Adventure Mystery Diversity (BAME) Travel Family Friendship	When Hal reluctantly accompanies his Uncle Nat on the final journey of the Highland Falcon, an iconic royal steam train, he is anticipating a dull, uneventful trip - but Lenny, the train driver's daughter, is a huge rail enthusiast and has stowed away, determined not to miss the experience of a lifetime. The two new friends have great fun exploring the train and observing the passengers, including an eccentric Countess with her five boisterous dogs, a glamorous film star and guests of honour, the royal prince and his wife.

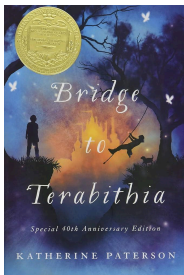

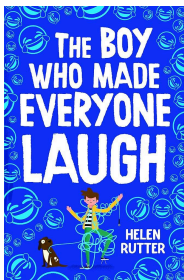

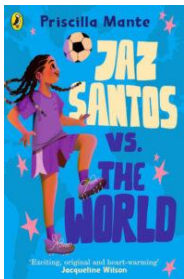

Secrets of a Sun King	Emma Carroll		Contemporary fiction	Historical fiction Adventure Friendship Grandparents Siblings	It's 1922, just at the point when the world was poised waiting for news about the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb in Egypt, when Lil finds a mysterious package on her grandad's doorstep, just as he's struck down with a terrible illness. The parcel was sent by a famous Egyptologist who has just been found dead! Is the curse of Tutankhamun the cause? Lil decides, with the help of her new friends, Tulip and Oz, that the only way to help her grandad is to return the package to its rightful resting place in Egypt.
The Infinite	Patience Agbabi		Reflecting realities Contemporary fiction	Adventure Coming of age Diversity (BAME) Friendship Mental health	Elle is a Leapling: born on a leap day (29th February) and with the ability to leap backwards and forwards through time. On her twelfth birthday she'll take her first official leap, on a school field trip to 2048. They'll visit the Time Squad Centre, a time-travelling crime-fighting organisation. But when Elle, in 2020, receives a cryptic SOS text message sent from someone in 2048 she knows something is wrong in the future. Who sent it? Why?
The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe	C.S. Lewis		Classic text	Family Friendship Adventure	Four adventurous siblings—Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy Pevensie—step through a wardrobe door and into the land of Narnia, a land frozen in eternal winter and enslaved by the power of the White Witch. But when almost all hope is lost, the return of the Great Lion, Aslan, signals a great change . . . and a great sacrifice.

Spark	M.G. Leonard				When Jack rescues a wounded cat, he quickly suspects foul play. Could there be a wildlife criminal on the loose in Briddvale? Jack rushes to investigate, determined to catch the culprit, only to stumble into a deepening mystery and a sinister criminal plot. Can Jack and The Twitchers stop the villains before it's too late?
The Last Wild	Piers Torday			Adventure Animals Dystopia	In a world where animals no longer exist, twelve-year-old Kester Jaynes sometimes feels like he hardly exists either. Locked away in a home for troubled children, he's told there's something wrong with him. So when he meets a flock of talking pigeons and a bossy cockroach, Kester thinks he's finally gone a bit mad. But the animals have something to say...

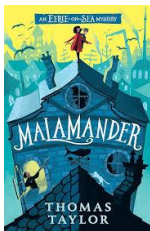

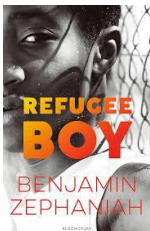

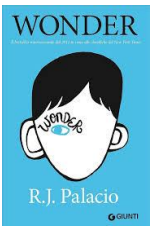

Bridge to Terabithia	Katherine Paterson
The Boy Who Made Everyone Laugh	Helen Rutter			School Personal, social issues Friendship Bullying	Billy's starting secondary school. It's a different one from most of his primary school classmates, but that suits him just fine – Billy's keen for a fresh start. He has a stammer, and he's determined that it isn't going to dictate how he is viewed at this new school. In fact he's got a list of ways he plans to get rid of the stammer before anyone even notices it. One of the ideas has just got to work, so he can start pursuing his dream of being a stand-up comedian. But if they all fail, he will simply ditch the comedy and concentrate on something that avoids speaking in public. Because that's the only option... right?
Jaz Santos vs The World	Priscilla Mante			Relationships Mothers Sport	Jaz loves football but it seems that only boys get to play. Jaz's mum, from Angola, and her father, from Scotland, no longer get on – and when her mum nearly burns the house down, her parents decide it is time for Mum to move out. It leaves Jaz desperate to get her back. Maybe if she scores enough goals and wins the football tournament? But first she has to get together a team of girls...

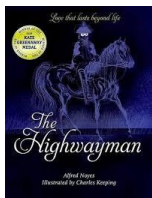

The House with Chicken Legs	Sophie Anderson			Myths and legends Bereavement Bullying Religion/spirituality Coming of age Magic	Every night is a party night at Marinka's house. There's food, drink, music and lively conversation... But all the guests are dead. Marinka's grandmother is a Yaga, someone who guides the recently dead through The Gate so they can make their way back to the stars they came from. Marinka is expected to follow in her grandmother's footsteps but she is desperate for a normal life, where she can make friends with the living. But can she really change her destiny or is her fate predetermined and unalterable? Loosely based on the Slavic myth of Baba Yaga, Marinka's story is magical, delightfully macabre and utterly engrossing. Skilful storytelling reimagines ancient folklore while addressing issues such as bullying, bereavement and taking control of your future, which will resonate with many young people.
Aya and the Star Chaser	Radiya Hafizer and Kaley McKean			Diversity (BAME) Religion/spirituality Around the world Myths and legends	Aya has always loved the stars and can't resist sneaking out one night to watch a meteor shower with her best friend, Naznen. At first, the girls are transfixed by the spectacular light show in the sky but then the mood changes. One star seems to be falling too fast – and heading straight for them. As the girls turn and flee, a flaming rock follows Aya down the hill and knocks her over. Then everything goes black. When Aya wakes up, in intense pain, she is confused and disorientated but worse is to come. And when she starts to breathe fire and her tears turn to snowdrops, her mother is determined to find someone who can cure her daughter. Instead of a cure, however, she finds a prophecy which has Aya at its heart and will certainly bring terrible danger.

Amari and the Night Brothers	B.B. Alston			Adventure Fantasy Mystery Magic School Sibling Diversity (BAME)	Amari is a likeable, brave and believable Black heroine from the projects, who struggles to feel like she belongs as a scholarship student at a prestigious private school. When her smart, beloved older brother vanishes, Amari will do anything to find him again. Her desperate search leads her to unexpected friendships, the incredible discovery that her brother was working for a supernatural organisation, and pits her against the most frightening of villains – the dreaded Night Brothers. As she uncovers more and more of her brother's secrets, the greatest secret of all turns out to be hidden within Amari herself.
Beetle Boy	M.G. Leonard			Adventure Funny Mystery Family Fathers	When Darkus' father, Dr Bartholomew Cuttle, mysteriously disappears from London's Natural History Museum, Darkus has to move in with his rather odd Uncle Max AND change schools. His new next-door neighbours, the peculiar cousins Humphrey and Pickering, are so messy that they have a beetle infestation in their attic, which is growing in a mound of mouldy teacups. One particularly spectacular (and intelligent) rhinoceros beetle befriends Darkus, and helps him on his quest to save his father from the evil Lucretia Cutter: a mad scientist with terrifying plans!

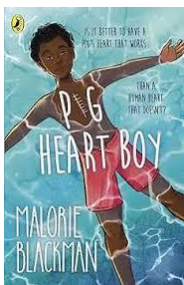

The Secret Garden	Frances Hodgson Burnett			Classics Disability (wheelchair) Family Personal/social issues	When the spoiled and bad-tempered Mary is orphaned at the age of ten, she is sent from India to live with her hunchback uncle on the Yorkshire Moors. At first, she is utterly miserable, but gradually the friendship of her maid and the discovery of a secret garden in the grounds of the house begin to change her. Then she finds another secret in the house - Colin, her sickly cousin, who is as self-centred and disagreeable as herself. This classic novel is a satisfying and absorbing read, and demonstrates the resilience of children even when they are surrounded by uncaring and flawed adults.

The Final Year	Matt Goodfellow		Poetry Reflecting realities	Family Illness Growing Up Friendship Bullying School Identity Belonging	Ten-year-old Nate lives with his mum and two younger brothers, Jax aged eight and Dylan, who's four and thinks he's Spiderman. The brothers are a tight little unit and, as the eldest, Nate takes care of the younger two when Mum is out with Auntie San at bingo, enjoying a few ciders. When his best friend PS is put in a different Year 6 class, Nate is gutted, especially when PS starts to hang out with Nate's nemesis, school bully Turner. New teacher Mr Joshua notices that Nate loves reading and writing, so encourages him to use words to help process his emotions, giving him a special notebook so he can write down his thoughts and manage his anger. However, Nate's world is turned upside-down when Dylan is rushed into hospital.

					How will he cope if his little brother doesn't pull through?
The London Eye Mystery	Siobhan Dowd			Adventure Mystery Disability Autism Aspergers Everyday life Behavioural/social/emotional	Ted likes the weather, he also likes statistics and routine but his life is thrown into disarray when his Aunt Gloria and cousin Salim arrive, like a hurricane, to stay in London en-route to a new life in New York. Ted and his older sister Kat arrange to take Salim on the London Eye but although they watch him go up in a pod, he never comes down again. Salim is missing. Ted's analytical mind becomes an asset as he and Kat piece together the information surrounding their cousin's disappearance and begin to unravel the mystery. Ted is an endearing character and the focus of the story is on the solving of a mystery rather than his Asperger's syndrome. This is a beautifully written and engaging book.
Once	Morris Gleitzman
Onyeka and the Academy of the Sun	Tola Okogwu			Adventure Coming of age Inclusive Diversity (BAME)	Fans of superhero movies will enjoy the spectacular fight scenes, the ethical conundrums and the timeless clash between good and evil.

How to be more Hedgehog	Anne-Marie Conway			Dyslexia Animals Bullying Environment Friendship School Mental health Nature	This heart-warming novel incorporates themes of friendship, bullying, parental separation and environmental issues. It sensitively explores what it's like to live with a stammer and will help readers to develop empathy and understanding. Each chapter heading features hedgehog drawings and facts, which are pertinent to Lily's experiences and add another dimension to the tale.
The Snowgirl	Sophie Anderson
Tom's Midnight Garden	Phillipa Pearce			Classics Adventure Coming of age Fantasy Friendships	Tom is sent away to stay with his aunt and uncle for the summer holidays. With no garden or children to play with, he feels lonely and unhappy, until one night he hears the clock striking thirteen and discovers a secret garden where he makes a new friend, Hatty. Yet it soon becomes clear that his new-found friend is living in another time altogether, and to her, Tom is a sort of ghost. Each time he visits the garden, Hatty has grown older. Finally, on a skating trip up the frozen river in the garden, Hatty and Tom begin to fade and become invisible to each other once more.

Where the world turns wild	Nicola Penfold			Science fiction Animals Environment Family Dystopia	This engaging environmental dystopia chronicles a journey of adventure, wonder and discovery. Juniper and Bear face many challenges, from city drones, mercenaries and wild animals to the search for food and water, but make surprising discoveries too. A story that invites questions about the fine line between right and wrong, and the interaction between humans and nature.
